

Introducing SunConnect™

Sun Chemical is introducing a user-friendly, entry level digital color management solution for Flexo water-based packaging printers. Ideal for printers who have not implemented a digital color management workflow because of cost and/or reluctance to digital technologies. SunConnect enhances communication between the printer and Sun Chemical Color Centres for quick turnaround for color match requests and provides press operators with an easy-to-use quality control tool to confirm their decisions on color.

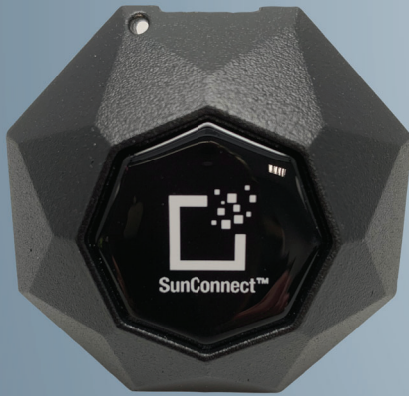

Image: SunConnect Digital Color Sensor

Easy interface for quality control with the digital color sensor and app!

Available for Flexo water-based packaging printers!

Improve communication - all from the SunConnect-app!

Data driven solution to quickly manage color!

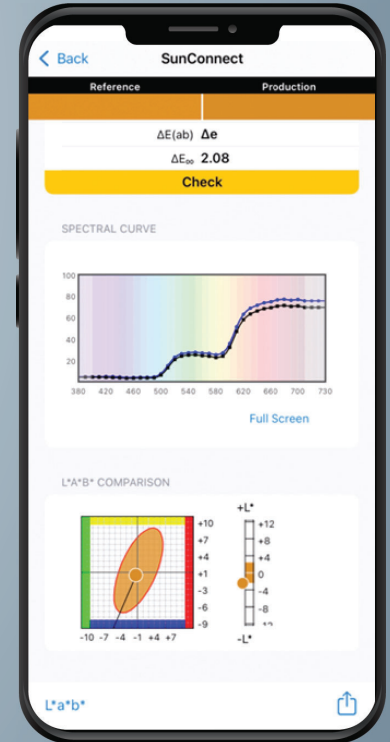

Image: SunConnect App

SunConnect Key Features:

This solution includes a Digital Color Sensor and user-friendly App for IOS platform* or desktop to easily enter the field of digital color management

- Streamline color matching process - faster communication and turnaround for color match requests
- Assist press operators can confirm their decisions on color based on data
- Improve operational efficiency by generating data for production manager to identify improvement opportunities
- Confirm production quality by generating data base for quality control departments

To learn more about SunConnect or to contact us or scan the QR code!

* Available for other smart phone devices in the future.

Email: globalmarketing@sunchemical.com |
Website: www.sunchemical.com

SunChemical®
a member of the DIC group
Color & Comfort